

US EPA ARCHIVE DOCUMENT

Conoco Inc. Americas Incident Support Team

Overview of Emergency Management Team Administration, Activation, Deployment and Response Operations

November 28, 2001

Lon A. Langlois
Emergency Response Coordinator, North America
P.O. Box 2197
Houston, Texas 77252-2197
(281) 293-6795

Americas Incident Support Team

- 27 ICS positions
- 87 volunteers
- Trained in the Incident Command System and Emergency Management
- Participate in 2 weeks of training and exercises annually

Americas Incident Support Team

■ Benefits

- ◆ Leveraged resources across functions
 - ☞ Downstream North America
 - ☞ Conoco Gas & Power
 - ☞ EP-US, South America, Canada
 - ☞ Marine
- ◆ Sustainable, systems approach

Americas Incident Support Team

■ Benefits

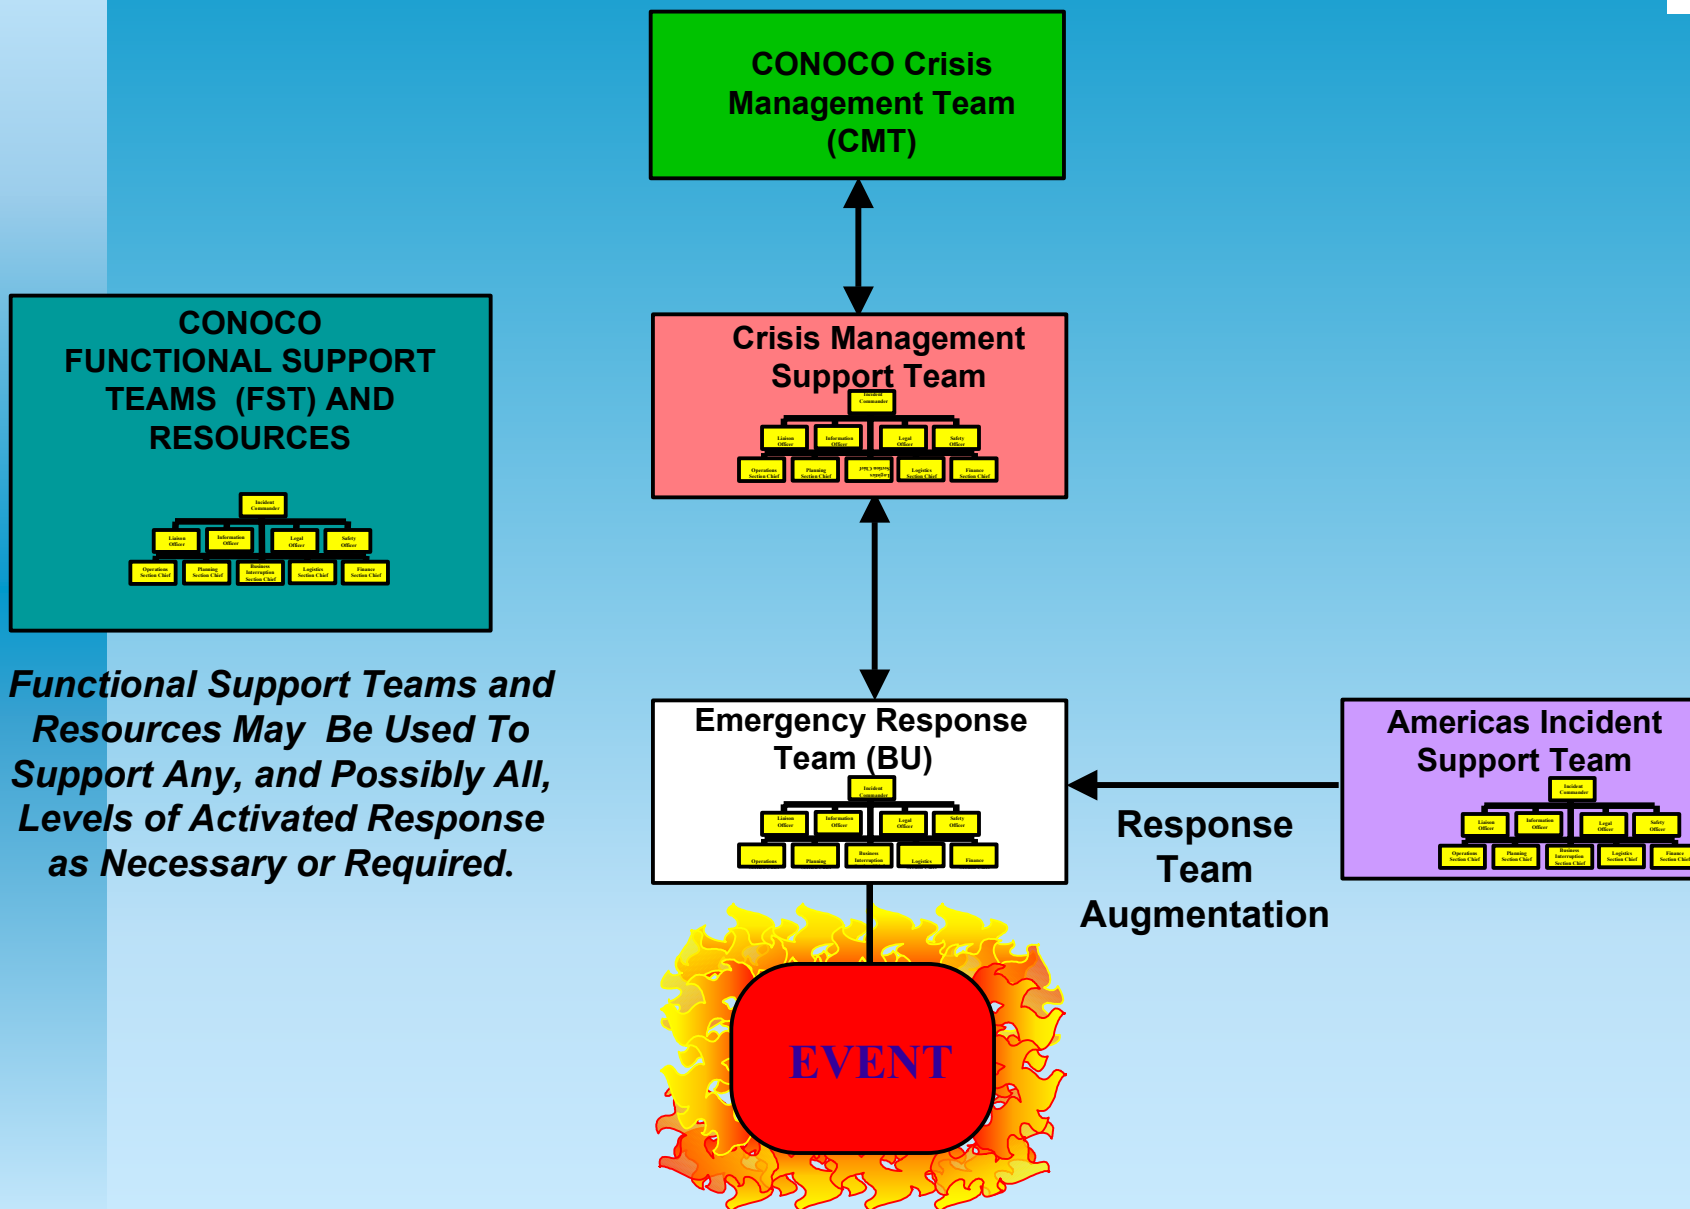

- ◆ Minimize business impact through trained, consistent, volunteer resources
- ◆ Reduce cost of sustainable multiple regional response teams
- ◆ All risk, mobile, management team

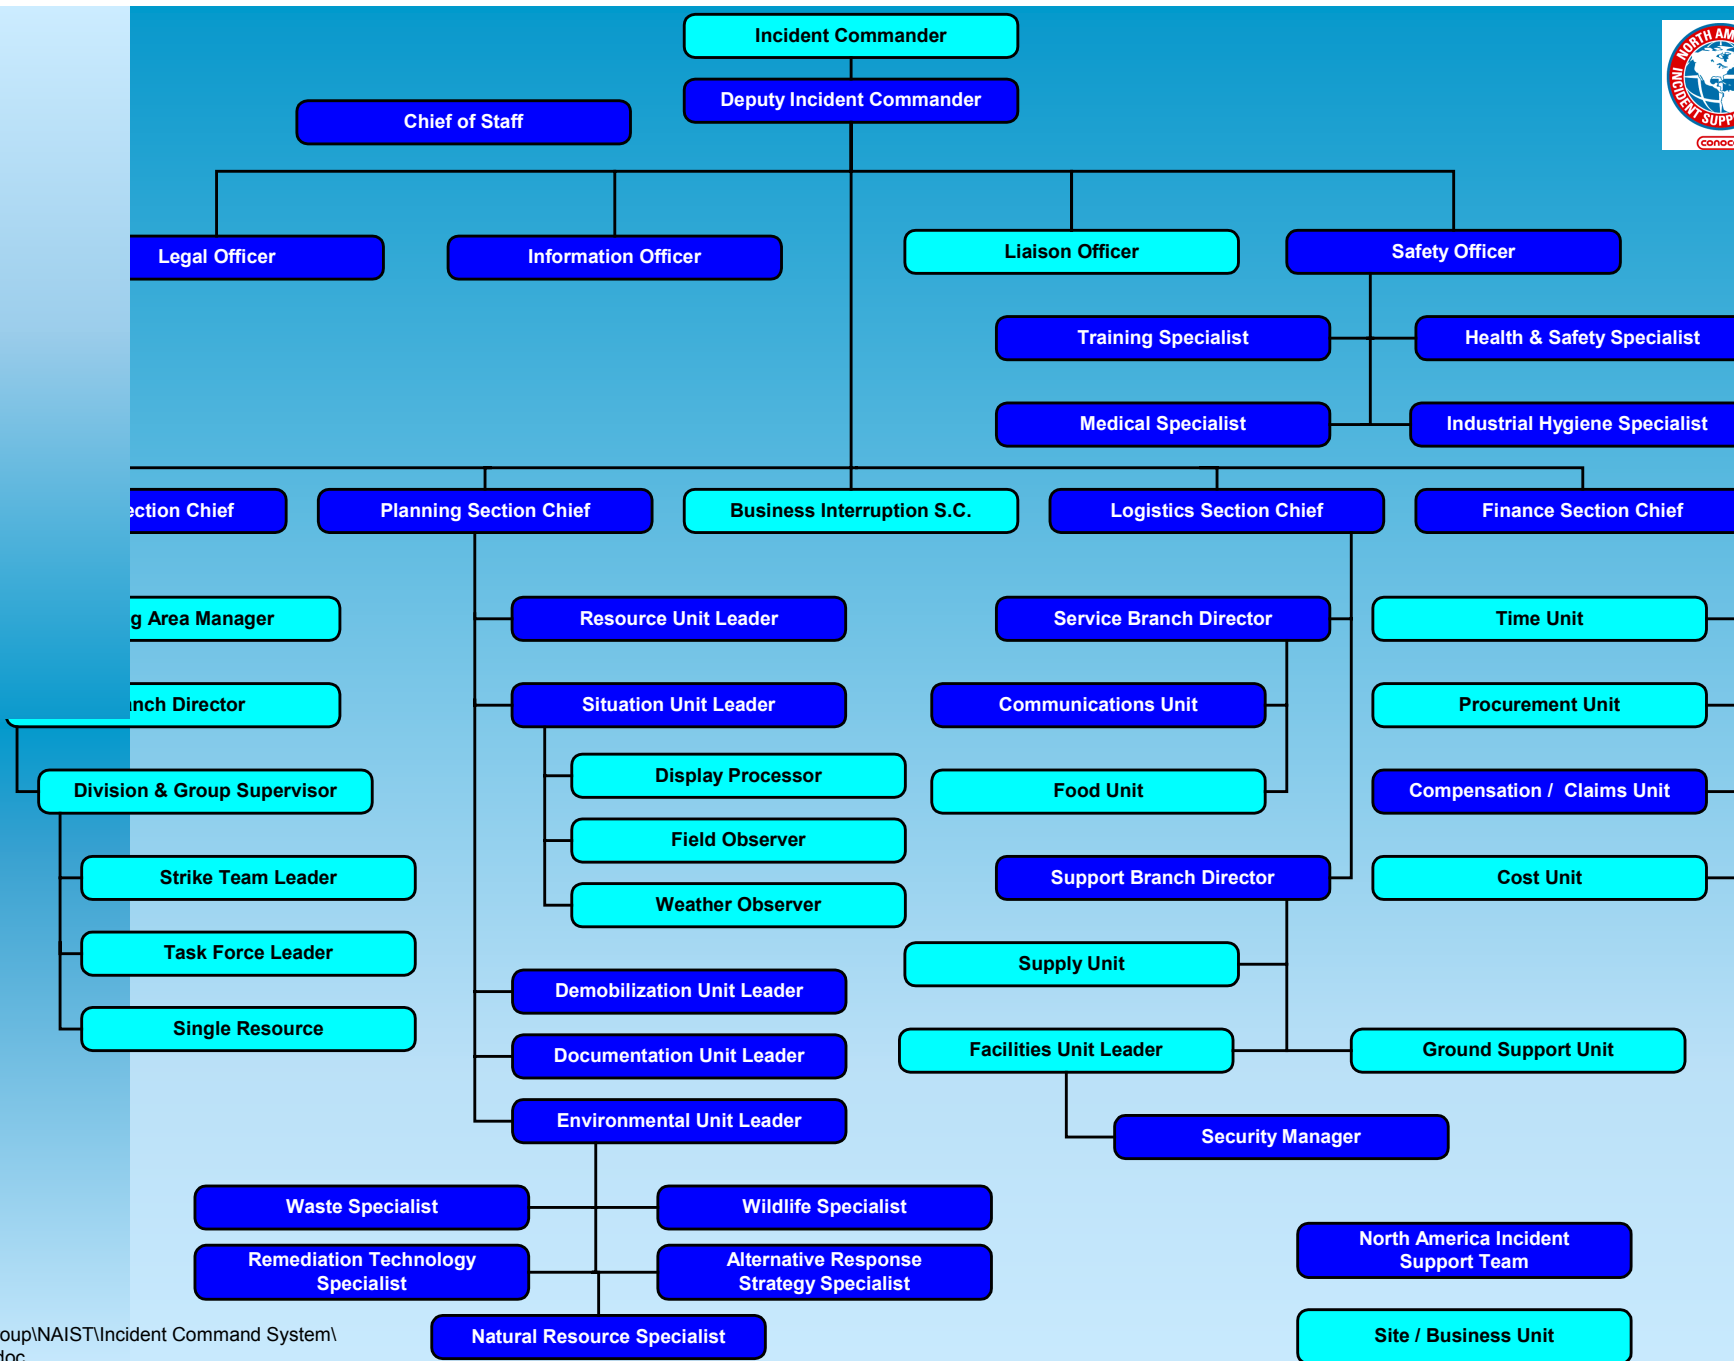

Americas Incident Support Team

- Not a Fire Brigade
- Not an Oil Spill Team
- Not a HAZMAT Team
- Not a replacement for Tier 1 response
- Do not take over emergency management

Conoco's Tiered Response

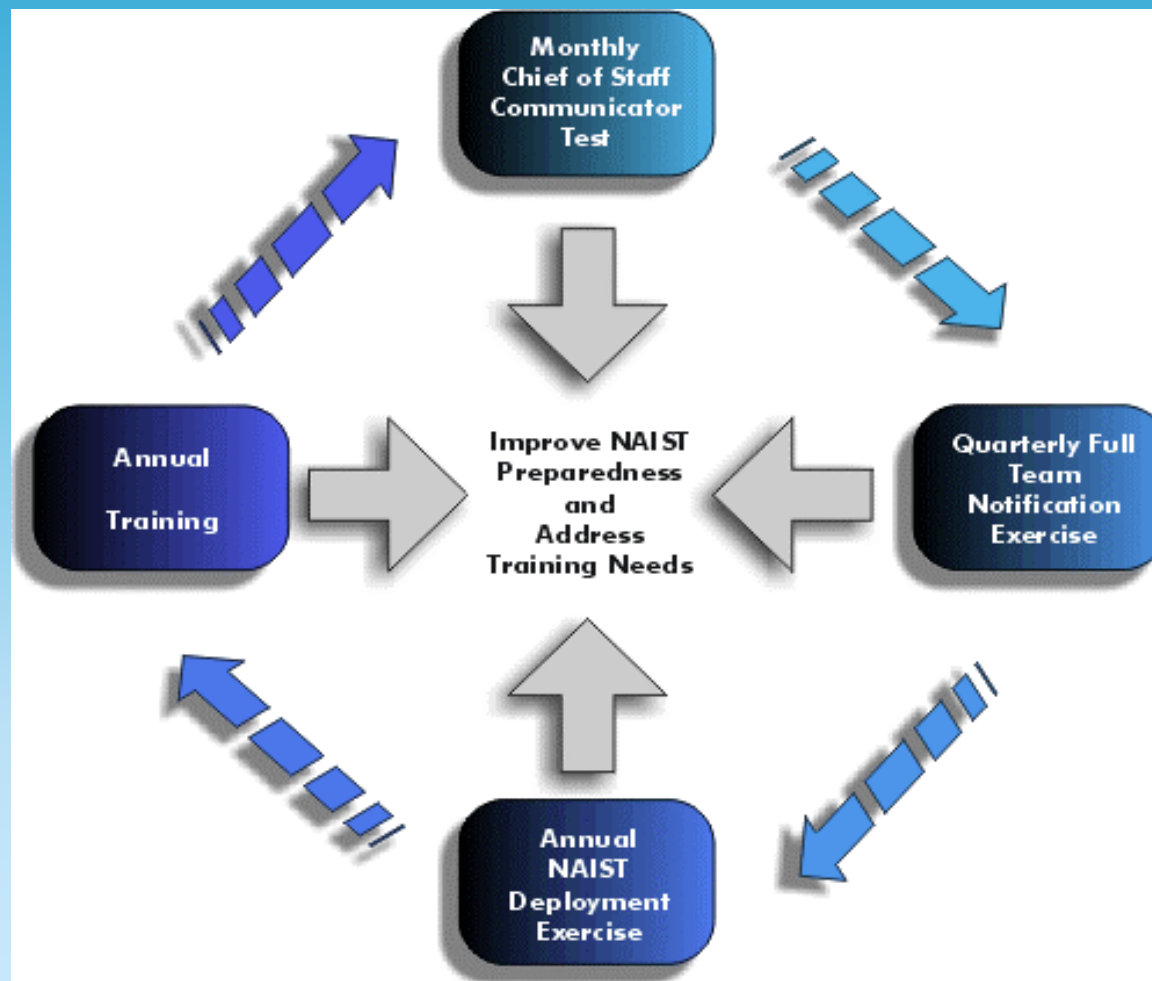

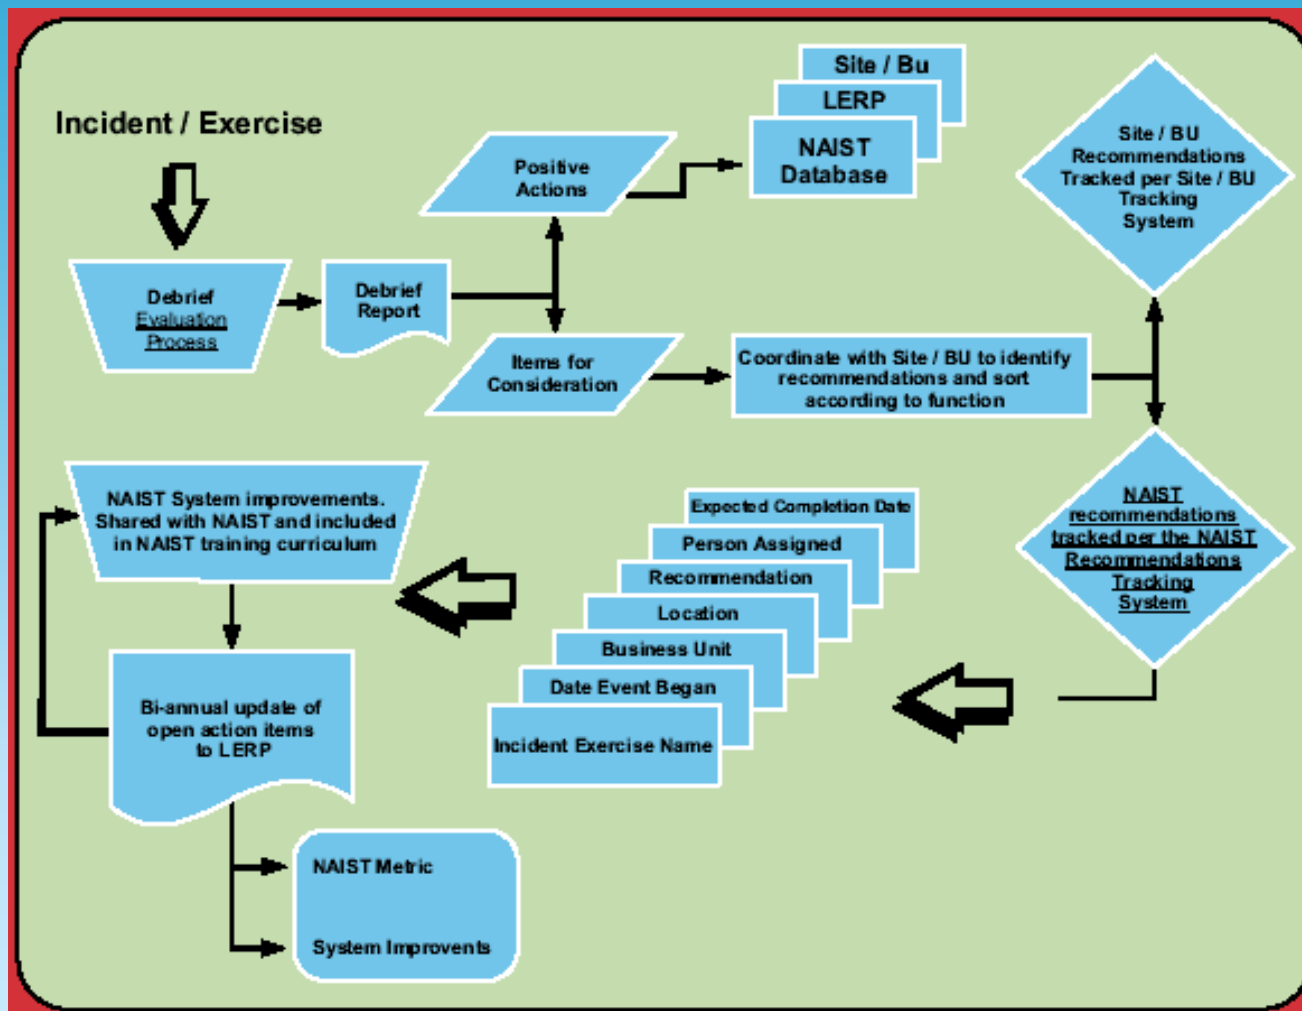

Americas IST Administration: Member Selection Process

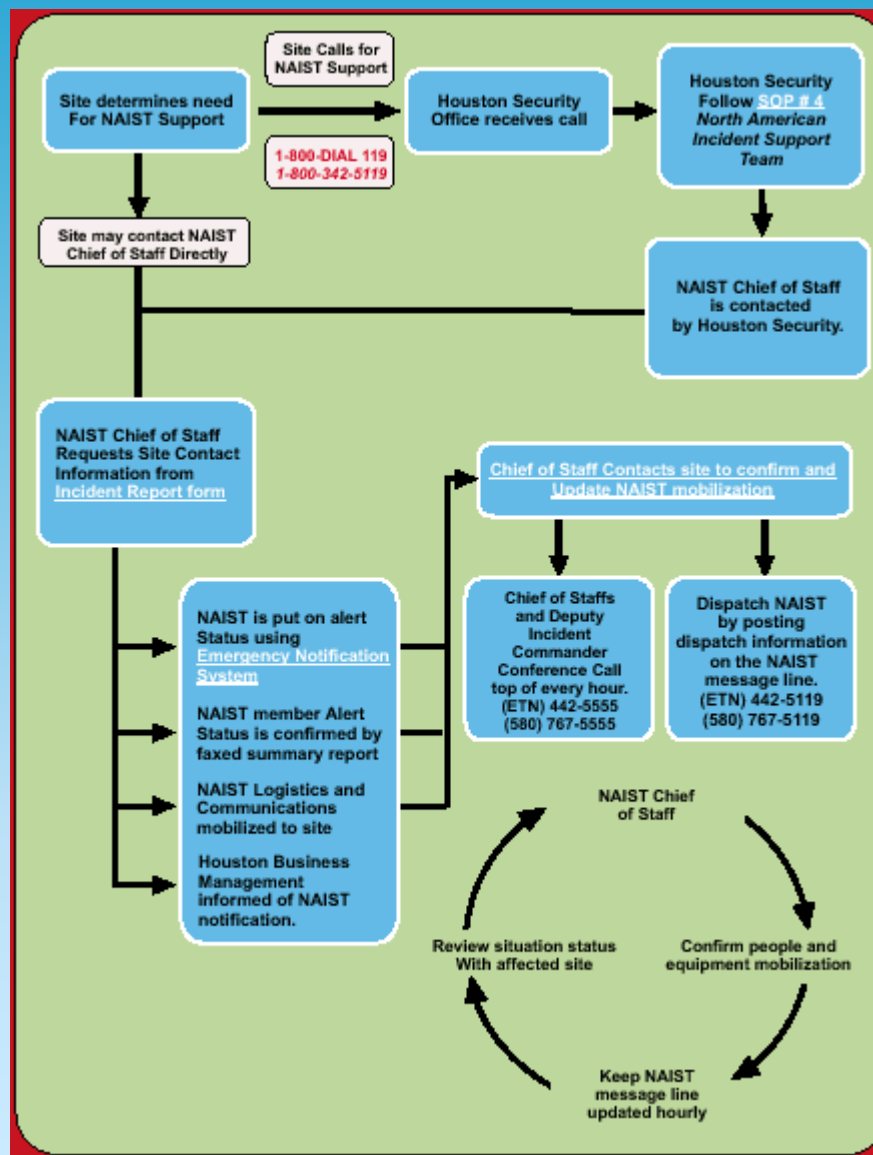

Americas IST Administration: Training Plan

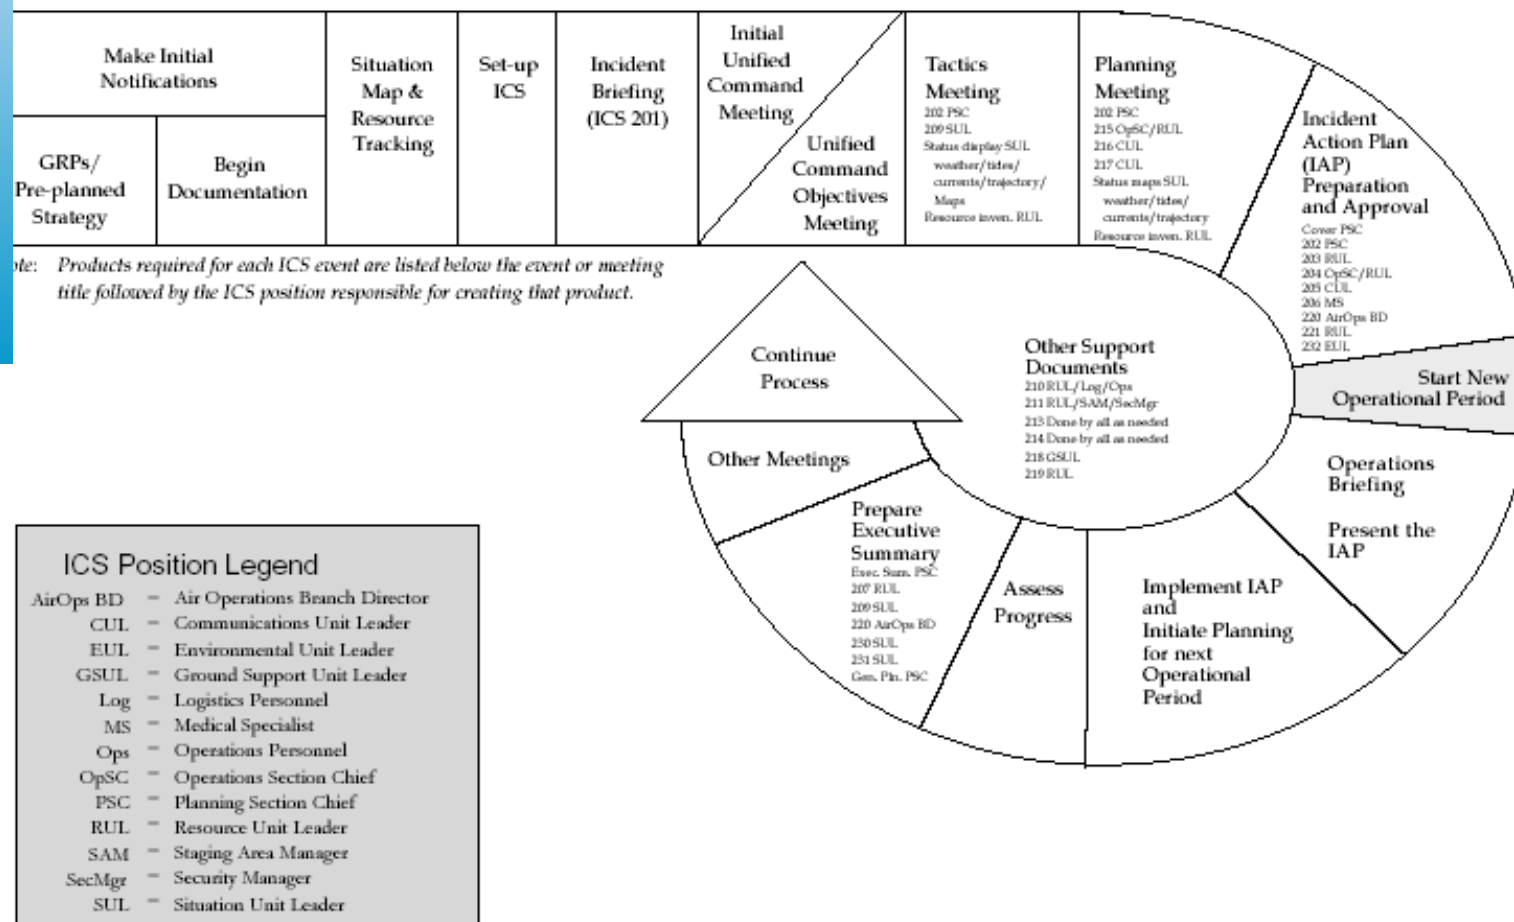

Americas IST Administration: Recommendation Tracking Process

Americas IST Response Operations: Activation & Deployment

Americas IST Response Operations: Planning Cycle Process

Americas IST Response Operations: Operations Flowchart

